LUTHERAN BRAILLE WORKERS: In the month of October, 2022, Lutheran Braille Workers' Ministry Center #72 celebrates the fiftieth year of their founding. It was established and continues today at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Wichita, KS. On Wednesday mornings, 20-25 volunteers meet to produce several books of the Bible and some Mustard Seed devotional booklets, in Braille. Approximately 100 centers in the USA produce the rest of the Bible in braille and large print (in several languages) as well as a variety of other religious materials, to gift the Word of God to those who are blind or low vision. The national organization, established in 1943 in California, depends on many volunteers and donors. Please help them celebrate this milestone with your time, donations, and prayers.
